

The aggregate peak is concentrated, not a universal per-pair optimum

Low-margin pairs lose margin on average; high-margin pairs drive most of the positive mean. LGSD-Large is pair-best for 203/600, not all 600.

A Mean margin change vs Base within each frozen-Base difficulty decile

B Which trained method gives the largest margin on each pair?

